PAY TRIBUTE AND DRAW INSPIRATION FROM JOAN JETT WITH OUR MUSES BEAUTY FEATURE JANUARY 11, 2021 | ELIZABETH RHODES | LEAVE A COMMENT | In our Fall 2020 Issue we introduced a new beauty feature called Muses. Drawing by Kevyn Aucoin, we pay tribute to some of our favorite creatives and share tips on the makeup publication titans of the past like Making Faces and Face Forward on how you can bring the essence of their inspiring spirit to your own beauty routine and look.

If you've read this far and realize you are not well acquainted with our muse, Joan Jett, here's an overview from the feature, "The spitfire guitar player who came from the teen scene in Los Angeles and co-founded the all-girl rock group The Run-aways and later finding more commercial success after she went solo with her releases as Joan Jett and the Blackhearts. Joan is a badass vegan who emanates

In the feature NARS Global Makeup Artist Jenny Smith had this to say about her muse, "The essence of Joan Jett's spirit is a confident, badass female that lives life to the beat of her own drum or should I say her own music. As the frontwoman for strength, confidence and some FIERCE eyeliner skills."

sion to emphasize bone structure and showcase a fierce attitude. Natural emphasis on the lips can be created with a neutral lipstick or pigment tapped into the lips with a finger or a brush." Here's Jenny in her full-on Joan look.

When I asked Jenny about the must-have techniques for cultivating your own look inspired by Joan Jett, she said, "The musts for techniques to recreate Joan Jett's look are smokey eyes which is the technique of layering and blending eyeshadows and eyeliner. To define the eyes, frame them with an edgy or graphic eyeliner technique that is finished off with layers of mascara. Contoured cheekbones and a bit of highlighter on the high points of the cheekbones will add strength and dimenserves a shout out.

One of our favorite parts of this feature is the love and care put into the details of the styling. Check out this jacket that didn't make it into the Fall 2020 issue but de-
