

Spring Reset

Refresh your look and makeup kit this season with these pro-tested products that will renew your interest in the art of maquillage and get you excited for when the world (eventually) reopens and we can go out into public spaces for events again.

feature by Elizabeth Rhodes

Jasmine Nervosa Toronto, Canada

LunatiCK Cosmetic Labs
Pro Palette Contour

Ashley Dinning Toronto, Canada

Noctex Cosmetics
Antiquity Palette

Angelina Sambrotto Los Angeles, United States

Urban Decay

Perversion Waterproof Fine-Point Eye Pen

Not every contour needs to be brown. I like thinking outside the box and choosing a color range that suits my corpse-y needs. Not only are these extremely blendable, they're versatile as well. I don't know about you, but I'm crawling out of my winter crypt looking like hot death. Not to mention, the palette is in the shape of a coffin! Quality and cute!

- Jasmine Nervosa
IG @jasminenervosa

Get that subtle liner or dramatic cat eye with ease. This liner pen is probably the darkest ink liner I have ever used and when they say waterproof, they mean it. The ultra-fine, flexible brush makes it the perfect liner for any look. Great for eyeliner beginners and eyeliner junkies alike. This product is a must have in my daily makeup routine.

- Angelina Sambrotto
IG @angiealaska

2

The Antiquity palette by Noctex Cosmetics hosts an array of everyday neutrals, paired with in-your-face, vibrant gem tones. This winning combination gives you the versatility to create a softer romantic look, while still giving you the option to experiment with bold accents of color for spring. If you're looking to add a bit of drama and vibrancy to your current routine, this palette has got you covered from day to night.

- Ashley Dinning
IG @hollywoodnoir